NETWORKING

The Chamber hosts monthly meetings, social events, ribbon cuttings and grand openings that help you get connected with other members and people in the community!

CREDIBILITY

Chamber membership is respected by the community. People often seek the advice of the Chamber for businesses that offer services they need. The Chamber will always suggest their members first.

VISIBILITY

Your business is listed on the Chamber website, publications and more. Your ads & promotions are posted on the Chamber's social media accounts, newsletters, emails & local bulletin boards. Members also have exclusive opportunities for marketing & event sponsorship.

GROWTH

In addition to great networking events, the Chamber often has motivational and informative speakers to help your business grow and stimulate overall economical growth!

VOICE

The Chamber is very active in the community! We host multiple family-friendly events, donate materials to teachers, give college scholarships to local high school students, & more. As a member, you can have a say in these and other effective actions for the progress of the entire community.
